

Relational Strategist/Licensed Therapist

Good Human Work is seeking applicants for this cross-functional role. The primary responsibilities for this position include seeing individual, couple, and family clients virtually (and pending location and mutual agreement, one day per week in our office locations), as well as providing relational strategy to our business partnerships. We are seeking highly motivated individuals who emphasize systemic and multicultural understandings in their work.

Our practice was built on the foundation that we are stronger as a whole than we are as individuals. As a therapist-owned and therapist-run company, it is our mission to treat our therapists with the respect, honor and care that they deserve. We are committed to taking care of our employees, and in turn, know they will take good care of our clients.

Employment status is considered part-time with hourly compensation from 5-25 hours per week and determined through our mutual agreement. The employee will be representing the Good Human Work values and vision.

Key Relational Strategist Responsibilities

- Deliver services to business partnerships through education, support, and strategic guidance
- Develop a keen understanding of GHW's approach to serve as a subject matter expert
- Participate in team strategy sessions and deliver business services to clients
- Participate in discovery sessions and provide on-site service(s) to select business clients
- Maintain appropriate notes and documents per GHW operations processes
- Support business development and growth efforts
- Other duties as assigned

Key Licensed Therapist Responsibilities

- Provide clinical, therapeutic services to individuals, couples, and families, per licensing and regulations
- Maintain appropriate client files and documentation
- Collaborate with administrative team to care for clients
- Utilize systemic models of therapy and the Good Human Work approach
- Participate in case consultations
- Support Good Human Work's outreach efforts
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications & Skills

- Valid, unrestricted license as LMFT, LMHC, LICSW, LP, or other comparable licensure
- Ability to collaborate with an interdisciplinary team

good human work

- Training and experience with systemic models of therapy
- Ability to respond in timely fashion to requests
- Comfort with technology and ability to provide services through various digital platforms
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Exceptional organization skills and a strong work ethic
- Demonstrated experience providing care and support to a variety of diverse clients

Perks & Compensation

- W2 pay rate is $60 per hour (All working hours paid)
- Flexible scheduling around your needs
- Paid sick leave
- Employee-assistance program
- Paid CEU and training opportunities
- Malpractice Insurance
- Optional commuter benefits, caregiver resources, and other voluntary benefits available
- Opportunities for growth and advancement
- Discounts and member pricing for a variety of products and services at companies nationwide

To Apply

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. To apply, please start here.

Note: Currently, priority is being given to applicants in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, particularly if located near the Milwaukee, Minneapolis, or Chicago areas. If you are located elsewhere, we encourage you to apply and/or set up a chat. We regularly find ourselves hiring elsewhere unexpectedly and will keep your information on file.

Additionally, Good Human Work believes strongly in living our values daily. We are a place and group of people that upholds an individual's right to live an authentic life where their identity is celebrated and affirmed. We believe that diversity makes us stronger and better as humans. We promote diversity, multiculturalism, and inclusion and strive to live out these values in our lives. We highly encourage therapists who identify with underrepresented groups to apply.